A LETTER OF THE COUNT of —
TO THE AUTHOR
OF THE Milan ALMANACK.

S I R,
THE Thanks which I send you, are an Acknowledgment of Interest ; the Impatience of receiving your incomparable Almanack for the Year 1703, obligeth me to send my hearty Acknowledgments for that of the precedent Year : But what shall I say ? It is the Voice of the Publick, or rather that of all Men of Understanding, which payeth Homage to your Merit. Your Prediction is so exact upon the Accidents of the Year 1702, have Ravish'd your Readers ; The Business of Cremona mark'd in the first Quarter of the Moon in February, by these words, viz. A horrible Masacre in a City. 2d. The Death of King William describ'd in the last New Moon of March, in these Words, viz. An Illustrious Personage will find his Mausoleum in a Place design'd for his Pleasure. The Battles of Luzzara and Fridlinguen, the Disaster of Poland ; In fine, the greatest Accidents, without entring upon Particulars, have been Predicted to the very Day on which they have happen'd Dederit ne vitam Casus ve Deus vo. Is it a Genius from above our Fortune that Guides you so happily ? The Publick divided in Opinion, is agreeably Charm'd by the Prodigies of your Knowledge and Divination ; I leave them in their Enchanted Raptures, and now I expect your Reflections upon the Year now entring, being perswaded that your Excellent Genius doth not Employ it self but upon a Certainty of Human Affairs ; That you have acquir'd the Knowledge of Parvuli Ingenii est Rivalos Consectarii fontes rerum non videre. But with a great Impatience do I expect your happy Conjectures ! Our Astrologers do promise us Mountains of Wonders, a Cir-

Circulation and Vicissitude of Human Events;
The Star of the second Magnitude in the House of the Constellation of Persons that presides at present over the City of Paris, (you know that the same presided over Rome in the Days of Augustus Caesar) In fine, the Dragon of the East making War against the Eagle of the West, and Devouring it with its very Feathers. Content then, I Conjure you and satisfy our Curiosity and Impatience, you that tread upon a certain Foundation amidst the dark Events of Futurity.

A General Discourse upon the Year 1703.

Horrible Condition of Mankind! A Life which is more to be deplor'd than that of Lions and Tigres, which in their greatest Anger spare their own Species! But Men destroy their Brethren, and boast of their Cruelty and Injustice to one another! 'Tis that which this present Year 1703. will represent to us after a Strange manner. For Sublunary Beings will rise and fall like the Waves of the Sea; there will be a many new Transplantations of Men, the Houses of the Living will be erected upon the Bones of the Dead. Under the Signs of Aries ♈, Sagitary ♐ and Cancer ♋; the State of Affairs in the West shall be entirely changed. There shall be in a certain Monarchy Critical Revolutions; there shall come on a sudden from the remote Corners of the Earth a black Generation of People of a Horrible Aspect. The Winds shall wage War in the Bowels of the Earth. The very Elements shall fight against a Kingdom. One Nation shall drive out another, and there shall be a General Commixture of strange Blood. Mars displays his his Standards. An Universal Desolation. Death shall make her Triumph in all Places. Surprizing Accidents, and contrary to the usual Course of Nature. In the mean while the Product and Fruits of the Earth shall be fair and plentiful.

Upon the Winter Quarter.

Winter commenceth the 22th of December for the Year 1703, by the Entrance of the Sun ☉ into Capricorn ♑, the Season will be very Changeable, and yet very Mild. Under Leo ♌, Virgo ♍, and Geminy ♊. Mars will inspire a Nation with a Desire of breaking out to make War, and will Conglaciare others with the Fear thereof. An Insulary Nation will be as Inconstant as the Wind that Changeth to every Point of the Compass. In a Kingdom Affairs will be as Ambiguous as the Oracles at Delph. The Trees of the Desert shall lament the Death of a Prince. Tempests and Innundations will occasion great Disorders in a Low Country. Masqu'd Canibals will mix their Bread with the Marrow of the Poor. Alliances broke in Pieces. Cities exposed to Fire. Remote Countries and our Antipodes will furnish us with wonderful News. Trust not, but look before you leap.

Up-

Upon the Spring Quarter.

The Spring Commenceth the $\frac{10}{20}$ of March, the Sun ☉ entring into Aries ♈ under Sagitary ♐, and Taurus ♉; Voyages undertaken with Hopes. Mars in Fury requir-eth Blood, and the Malice of Saturn is in a Condition to furnish him with it. A Monarch goeth out of Port, enriched with the Ensigns of great Renown. Mariners, Tarpollians by Extraction, shall be severely whipt. A Prince shall do such great Exploits, that the Poet shall Sweat in Singing his Praises. A great Revolution shall Surprise the whole World. A place shall be Attack'd, and defended withan extream Vigour. The Inconstancy of a Nation shall bring Misfortunes upon it. A Province shall be Menaced with a Second Deluge. Strange Spectacles shall be seen in the Air, mixed with Fire. Noises extraordinary in the Elements shall fright Islands. The Earth shall not solely be the Theatre of War, but the Sea shall likewise participate of it.

On the Summer Quarter.

The Sun entring the Sign Cancer ♋ the $\frac{10}{20}$ of June, will give Beginning to the Summer, which will be reasonably fair. Mixed with Rain. Under Gemini II, Pisces ♋

♄ and Leo ♌, the Ocean will be Spectators of Action, and shall see the Spoils of the Unfortunate. The Designs of a Prince will be a perfect Lab'rynth. There is nothing Constant here below. Such is the Fortune of War by Sea and Land, to day Victorious and Triumphant, to morrow Conquered and in Chains. Cittadels Ally'd will give the Alarm to many Sea-Coasts. Qui Capit capiat, qui non succumbat & vapulet. A Civil War will succeed a Foreign, and bloody Battles and Murders. The Torrent of Conquests that will follow a Hero, will astonish the Universe. What strange Revolutions in remote Countries ! Channels of Blood will overflow a flat Country. A Field of Battle shall be the Sepulchre of a Hero. Argum esse oportet qui Dux est in Tergo, in Fronte, in Capite, in Pedibus, Oculos habere. A Horrible Sedition.

Upon the Autumn.

The Sun ☉ entring into the Sign of Libra ♎ the $\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{3}$ of September, begins the Autumn. The Season will be very moist under Cancer ☊, Aries ♈ and Scorpio ♏, they shall put on Mourning in a Kingdom. New Declarations of War, Imprisonments will be remarkable. Rivers shall be Spectators of many many Combats. And Neptune shall behold the Wrack of many Ships. Seditious Insurrections, Cities pillaged and Bombarded. Great Men expos'd to the Caprices of Fortune. New Leagues, overthrowing of States. Alas, this World is no other than a Circle of Shadow and Apparitions, and that an Enchanted one too. The Fortune of all Men is no more than a Repetition of the Adventures of Ixion; of an Age of Gold, we have got an Age of Iron, a Reign signaliz'd for the Conflagrations and Earth-Quakes. O Secula. O Mores. The Folly of the Age.

Of Eclipses.

The first Eclipse is of the Moon, will be 16: 3d of January, but not at all seen by us. The 2d of the Moon, may be seen of us the $\frac{1}{2} \frac{2}{9}$ of June. The 3d will be of the Sun, and happen on the $1 \frac{3}{4}$ of July. The 4th of the Sun, and will be seen the $\frac{1}{2} \frac{1}{3}$ of December. And the 5th will be of the Moon, and happen on the $\frac{1}{2} \frac{2}{3}$ of December. These Three Eclipses will not be seen upon our ~~Merison~~ Merison.
